January 2013

Fra Editor

Welcome to 2013

I was given permission to use this column at this interim time. I want to thank Carolyn for her years of service, as I'm sure do all of you. We've enjoyed terrific programs and food events during these past years. Many hours of work behind the scenes are required for this to happen. Carolyn made it look easy. Although Carolyn told me she can't sing, if you were at the Julebord, you too noticed her leading the songs beautifully.

Since we have averted the Mayan calendar/world coming to an end issue, we can focus on the many events Vonheim's new officers have planned.

Please remember your suggestions are always welcomed.

Thank you and see you in 2013.

Louise Bakken, Editor

Join us at 6:30pm on Tuesday, January 15th at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 4801 France Ave So, for chicken wild rice soup and salad, installation of Vonheim's new board and a presentation on the International Summer School (ISS) program in Oslo, Norway.

Merle Tingelstad will provide an ISS presentation that promises something of interest for everyone based on his son, Erik's, experience in 2012. If you have family members that are in college or will be attending college in the future, you will learn about a cost-effective Study-Abroad credit program with potential for scholarship help from Sons of Norway. Part of the ISS program offerings includes guided excursions to various locations in Norway. This presentation will be part travelogue showing ISS events and tours around Oslo as well as trips taken to Hallingdal (highlands, wildlife) and Bergen (Fjords, funicular, Troidhaugen, Fish Market) and discussion of layover in Iceland when flying Iceland Air.

It's time to think scholarships! The Sons of Norway Foundation offers college scholarships for current Sons of Norway members, or children and grandchildren of current Sons of Norway members. There are six different scholarship funds, and approximately 25 scholarships are awarded each year. They range in awards from $1,000 up to 50% tuition, depending on the field of study and scholarship fund. Please have your college-aged students check out these excellent opportunities by going to www.sonsofnorway.com, click on foundation, then click on scholarships. ### 2013 NORWEGIAN LANGUAGE CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS

The deadline for registering for the 2013 Skogfjorden language camps to obtain 2012 pricing has now passed. I am happy to report that Vonheim Lodge has 12 young people who have registered for 24 weeks of learning the Norwegian language and culture at the camps sponsored by Concordia Language Villages. Scholarships will be determined by February 1 and sponsoring families will be notified accordingly.

Masse Moro

Masse Moro is a two week Norwegian Heritage camp (July 21 to August 3) sponsored by Sons of Norway District No 5, located near Eau Claire, WI. for ages 9-15. The cost is $600. Whereas the deadline for registering is not until May, any Vonheim family which is considering sending youth to this camp, must contact me by January 20 to indicate their interest. This is necessary to determine the total number of campers by that date who will be eligible to obtain scholarship assistance. Contact me as well for information regarding registration as these registrations will all be submitted to me along with a $50 non-refundable deposit.

So please contact me by telephone (leave a message) at (651) 451-7313 or you may e-mail me at psorheim@juno.com.

The High Cost of Saying Goodbye

Did you know that the cost of laying a loved one to rest typically cost $10,000 or more. Legal fees, unpaid medical bills, taxes, outstanding debts. Even if you have already planned for funeral costs, there are many expenses that your family could face. To make sure that your final expenses are covered, Sons of Norway has now a simplified Whole Life policy up to $9,999.00. No medical exam is required. Just answer a few easy questions.

A sample of the premium for this policy is as follows:

For a 65 year old female the premium for a $9,999.00 policy would be $5,141.00 guaranteed. The idea is to plan now to avoid the stress

Rubber Ducky Fund Raiser

Many lodges raise money for worthy causes in their communities, but how many do so with something so simple as a rubber duck bath toy? One lodge in Norway, Dalbuen 8-22, has been having an annual "rubber duck drop" for the past 8 years to raise money for worthwhile causes in their community. The lodge, which is located in Hauge I Dalane, has over 100 members, many of whom have been involved with the fundraiser throughout the years.

What exactly is a duck drop? Event participants sponsor a rubber, toy duck, which is then entered in a race. The ducks are dropped in a river to be carried by the current toward the finish line. The sponsor of the first duck crossing the line is declared the winner.

Dalbuen's annual event has become a perennial success. The 2012 event raised over 70,000 Kroner (over $12,200). This year's money went towards the purchase of a minibus for a local nursing home. While the minibus has a cost of over 700,000 Kroner (nearly $123,000), the lodge and other partners in the community have already raised 420,000 Kroner (over $73,000).

What contributed significantly over the past 8 years to the event's success is that Dalbuen has created an efficient system. The month before the event, normally May, members sell tickets every Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Another 20 members of the lodge work the day of the event to ensure everything runs smoothly and to create an exciting, fun time for all in attendance. Their hard work has paid off; Dalbuen alone has raised over 400,000 Kroner (over $70,000) in eight years for various local causes. In fact, they're so efficient lodge President Tordis Stenberg remarks "The big challenge each year is how high or low the river will be when the ducks are released!"
